PROF. ESPUTA Would respectfully inferm the public that he is now prepared to give lessons for in Vocal and Instrumental Music. Having retired from his other professional business, he is now able to devote the whole of his time to instruction in music to all those who may be pleased to patronize him. Prof. Esputa's method is the same as is taught in Europe—that is, while he makes good performers of his pupils he makes good musicians of them also; so that any one who may receive instructions from him may acquire that knowledge of music as will make them competent for teachers or professional musicians.

Prof. Esputa is now forming classes and all who desire to enter must apply early, as the number is limited.

Por terms apply to Prof. JOHN ESPUTA, No. 513 8th street east, Navy Yord.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, June?.—The following have just been issued from headquarters, and are published for the benefit of all concerned:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, June?. Itsel.—General Order.—Edward Orapsey, a correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, having published in that journal of the 2d instant, a libellous statement on the Commanding General of this army, calculated to impair the confidence of the army in the commanding officer, and which statement the said Crapsey now acknowledges to have been false, and based on some idle camp rumor, it is hereby ordered that he be arrested and paraded through the lines of the army, with a placerd marked "Libeller of the Press," and that he be then put without the lines and not permitted to return.

The Provost Marshal General will see that The Provost Marshal General will see that this order is promptly executed. The Commanding General trusts that this example will deter others from committing like offences, and he takes occasion to notify representatives of the press, that, whilst he is ready at all times to extend to them every facility for acquiring facts, and giving circulation— truth, he will not hesitate to punish with the utmost rigor all instances like the above, where individuals take advantage of the privileges afviduals take advantage of the privileges af-forded them to circulate falsehood, and thus impair the confidence which the public and the army should have in their generals and other

Assistant Adju ant General.

Assistant Adju ant General.

[The following paragraph appeared in the Inquirer of the 2d instant, and is probably the false statement for which the correspondent is punished:—"History will record, but newspapers cannot, that on one eventful night during the present campaign Grant's presence saved the army, and the nation too; not that General Meade was on the point of committing a blunder unwittingly, but his devotion to his country made him loth to risk her lastarmy on what he deemed a chance. Grant assumed the responsibility, and here we are still."]

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAO, June 4,1864.—Special Orders, No. 152.—[Extract.] 7. Lieutenant Colonel M. O. Murphy, 170th New York volunteers, having, on the 25th titimo, presumed to send a flag of truce to the enemy's lines without any authority whatever, is here-by dishonorably dismissed from the military service of the United States, subject to the ap-proval of the President.

By command of Major General Meade. S. WILLIAMS, Assistant Adjutant General. All is quiet along the lines to-day, except occasional heavy guns in the direction of Bo occasional heavy guns in the direction of Bottom Bridge.

The mails are now regularly received in the army, the arrangement being most complete under the management of Lieut. D. B. Parker and Mr. W. B. Haslett, postmaster of the Army of the Potomac. Newspapers will also arrive regularly from this date, under the direction of Mr. Lamb, news agent.

Headquarters, June 8—5 a.m.—The fiag of truce sent by General Grant was arranged for last evening, and, under the direction of the corps commanders, the dead and wounded between the lines of works were brought off.

There were very few wounded at some points, while at others quite a number came in. None but medical officers and stretcher bearers were allowed to go on the field, and all intercourse allowed to go on the field, and all intercourse with the enemy was strictly prohibited. At the expiration of the time agreed upon, a voice from the enemy's line sung out, "Boys, get to your holes, the time is up," when all hands

A few shells were thrown on our left yester day afternoon, but no damage. A portion of the 5th corps is reported as having arrived at a point on the Chickshominy, near Bottom's Bridge, and considerable cannonading was heard in that direction yesterday afternoon.

A party of rebels, a captain, lieutenant, and five privates, came into our lines yesterday with a flag of truce, looking for the body of an officer, and our men at that point brought them in, not knowing that a flag of truce prevailed. They were returned to their lines last evening.

The railroad from the White House to the army is being put in order, and will be ready for travel in a day or two for travel in a day or two.

Burning of the Steamer Berkshire. NEW YORK, June 9 .- Thirteen persons are known to have been lost by the burning of the Berkshire. Eight bodies have been found so far. Some have been identified. Passengers state that probably no one escaped from the ladies cabin. It is thought that about forty lives were lost, perhaps a larger number, as only seventy or eighty are known to be saved. The passengers were for the greater part from Hudson and Catskill. The river is being dragged and the wreck searched for bodies. Noel Regan, of Hyde Park, had a leg broken, and Andrew Soper is probably fatally injured by the falling of a smoke-stack this morning. The boat was valued at $250,000, and was fully insured.

The Sanitary Fair in Philadelphia. PHILADELPHIA, June 9.—The Sanitary Fair now being held here promises to be a success, far exceeding the expectations of the most sanguine of its projectors. The admissions average 20,000 persons daily. No return of receipts has yet been made, but they are believed to be very large. The city is thronged with people from the interior of the State and from Delaware and New Jersey. The collection of paintings is universally conceded to be the finest ever displayed on this continent.

THE SIEGE OF RICHMOND.

[Correspondence of Philadelphia Inquirer.]

NEAR HEADQUARTERS, THREE MILES PROM

COLD HARBOR, June 6, Monday—10 a. m.—A bright day of summer bathed in sunshine and cooler with a bracing air, succeeding a yesterday of drizzling rain and heavy atmosphere;

scarcely the dropping shots of a picket line, when yesterday closed with a short but terrible storm of iron hail bursting on Barlow's lines, these are some of the changes of war and weather we are experiencing on the sacred soil of war-wasted Virginia.

When I attempt to give you an idea of the formation of our lines this morning, I opine the task a hard one, for it is exceedingly tiresome work for the unpracticed mind to obtain a decided opinion here on the ground. However, [Correspondence of Philadelphia Inquirer.]

cided opinion here on the ground. However, like Colonel Miller. "I'll try." In the first place let me remark that the multiplicity of roads in this section is in the highest degree roads in this section is in the highest degree embarrassing to a description of the situation, it is as if all the houses taken from the site of Philadelphia and an army was maneuvering on its streets. Too many roads are a nuisance when an army is about, and especially so to the journalistic corps.

A week ago to-day our lines faced the Central Railroad, and to the west with Mechanicsville and Richmond on our left flant to-day, as a consequence of our gradual alignor day, as a consequence of our gradual sliding (I;can use no other term) to the left, our right has been swung around, and our whole line so crept down the Chickahominy, that we now face to the southwest, with that stream before us, and with Mechanicsville and Richmond almost in front of our center. This is a change of but a few miles in distance, but a vast one in position.

What is before us? Lee's army and a difficult task. If that army of the enemy were out in an open field we would make extraordina-rily short work of them; but unfortunately they are not. Just now they are in an impro-vised series of works northeast of the Chicka-hominy, not, properly speaking, a part of the defenses of Richmond, which all lie behind that historic stream. Across the Chickshominy are the defenses of Richmond, which, from conversation with citizens, I find to be in five lines or series or works. Meantime, as the two armies lie, close fighting is the order of the day. It is the days lines are hardly forty yards apart, and each line is not much more that in advance of the line of earthworks.

CAPTURE OF THE U.S. GUNBOAT WATER WITCH BY THE REBELS.—The United States steamer Massachusetts, Acting Volunteer Lieutenant William H. West commanding, from the South Atlantic Squadron, via Hampton Roads, reports the capture on the 3d of June, 2a. m., of the U.S. steamer Water Witch, June, 2a. m., of the U. S. steamer Water Witch, Lieut. Com. Austin Pendergrast, in Ossabaw Sound, Georgia, by eight armed boats from the rebel Fort McAlister. This information was received from one of her crew, the only one who made his escape by jumping over her bows and swimming ashore. He says a desperate resistance was made by her officers and crew, but superior numbers overpowered them and compelled them to surrender. He cannot tell if they met with any loss, as he saw the action going on as he was secreted in the long grass. An expedition was fitting out to go down and endeavor to capture or destroy her. The Water Witch is a regular navy built vessel, of 35 tons, 5 guns, and was considered fact. She is rigged as a topsail schooner, and has side wheels.

it is learned that ex-South Carolina Congress-man Lawrence M. Keitt was mortally wound-ed Wednesday, and died the next day. Also that Gen. Dales, commanding a division of Ewell's Corps, was killed on Thursday, op-posite Bartlett's brigade 5th corps.
